

*The Sale of Hillwood
Aldbourne
1797*

To be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Jemmitt against Witts and others, before Nicholas Smith, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court of Chancery, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery, London.

A Freehold Estate called Hillwood, situate in the Parish of Aldbourne in the County of Wilts., consisting of a Farm-House, Barns, Stables, Yard, and other Out-Buildings, together with 17 Acres and upwards of Arable, Meadow and Pasture Ground, the greatest Part of which lies around the Farm-House, with Right of Common adjoining the Premises for 28 cows and 361 Sheep; also Seven Cottages, and a small Meadow, situate in West Street in Aldbourne aforesaid, the Whole of which are of the present Value of £140 per Annum or thereabouts.

Gazette Issue 14040 published on the 26 August 1797