

Crime Reports

Allington, All Cannings 1700-1799

1789

At St. Ann's Hill, Tan-Hill fair, on the 6th instant a man was detected picking pockets, and underwent the discipline of the horsepond, horsewhip, &c. so very severely, that he narrowly escaped with his life, and not without the total loss of a genteel head of hair, and part of one of his ears. Bath Chronicle, 20 August 1789