All Cannings

ALL CANNINGS is a parish and village in the northern division of the county, hundred of Swanborough, and petty sessional division, division, union and county court district of Devizes, Salisbury diocese, Wilts archdeaconry, and Avebury Rural Deanery, situated 5 miles east from Devizes, and 23 north from Salisbury, in a plain, in the midst of a well cultivated district. The Kennet and Avon canal passes through here, running east to west. The church of St. Ann, repaired in 1842, is an ancient cruciform building, consisting of a nave, chancel, transept, north and south aisles, and a square tower rising from the intersection, having a turret and plain parapet, and containing 5 bells: the chancel is now being completely restored, in a very handsome and elaborate manner, in the Early English style, under the superintendence of Digby Wyatt, Esq.; when finished, it will have a wooden groined roof, Devonshire marble shafts, carved alabaster reredos, and on the outside a corbel table under the eaves: the four side and the east windows will all be of stained glass, and of a memorial character, each being presented by a different donor. The register dates from the year 1579. The living is a rectory, with Etchilhampton annexed, yearly value £1,200, with residence and 35A. 3R. 5P. of glebe land, Lord Ashburton, and held by the Rev. Thomas Anthony Methuen, M.A., of Oriel College, Oxford. Here is a National school, built and partly supported by the rector. There are charities of the yearly value of £16. St. Ann's Hill fair, August 5th, for cattle and sheep, is held within this parish. Lord Ashburton is lord of the manor and principal landowner. The soil is heavy loam; subsoil chalk and clay. The entire parish contains 5,483 acres of land, and 1,103 inhabitants, of which 602 are in All Cannings tithing.

ALLINGTON is a tithing, half a mile north with 150 inhabitants, and a Baptist chapel. On Clifford's Hill, a mile and a half north-east, is Rybury camp, supposed to be of early English origin. On the downs, surrounding the immediate parish, are many barrows.
