All Cannings

ALL CANNINGS is a parish and village (mentioned in Domesday Book as Cannings) in a plain, in the midst of a remarkably well cultivated district, 1 ½ miles north from Patney station, 4 miles north-west from Woodborough station on the Newbury and Bath branch of the Great Western Railway, and 5 miles east from Devizes, in the eastern division of the county, hundred of Swanborough, Devizes petty sessional division, union and county court district, Avebury rural deanery (Cannings portion), archdeaconry of Wilts and diocese of Salisbury. The Kennet and Avon canal passes through here. The church of All Saints is an ancient cruciform building of grey stone, chiefly in the Early English style, but containing two piers of Norman date, and consisting of chancel, transepts, nave of three bays, aisles, north and south porches and a central tower, with a plain parapet and turret, and containing a clock and 5 bells: the chancel, restored in the Early English style, as a memorial to the Rev T P Methuen, under the superintendence of Mr Thomas Henry Wyatt, architect, has a wooden groined roof, supported by shafts of Devonshire marble, and a reredos of carved alabaster, in the centre of which, under a triangular-headed canopy, is a finely-executed representation of The Lord's Supper; in the chancel are two sedilia, and in the south transept, an ancient piscina: the stone font has an elaborately carved pyramidal oak cover: the east window and five others are all memorials, including one placed in 1879 to the Hitchcock family, and there are several mural monuments to the Ernle family: the church has about 350 sittings, most of which are unappropriated. The register dates from the year 1570. The living is a rectory, with the chapelry of Etchilhampton annexed, joint net yearly value £687, including 36 acres of glebe, with residence, in the gift of Messrs. Harman Brothers, and held since 1900 by the Rev James Stephen Crisall MA of Wadham College Oxford. The charities consist of Lavington's of £14 yearly, and a sum of £90 bequeathed in or about 1884 by Rev H Methuen, a son of a former rector, for the poor. St Ann's Hill fair, August 6th, for cattle and sheep, is held within this parish. Messrs. Harman Brothers are lords of the manor and principal landowners. The soil is heavy loam; subsoil chalk and clay. The area of All Cannings is 3,223 acres; rateable value £3,050; the population in 1901 was 795, of whom 537 were in All Cannings, 80 in Allington and 178 in Etchilhampton.

ALLINGTON tithing is half a mile north-east and has a Baptist chapel. Rybury Camp, on Clifford's Hill, 1 ½ miles north-east is supposed to be of early British origin; and the downs surrounding the village are dotted with many barrows. The area is 1,193 acres; rateable value £611.
