

Performance at the Schoolroom

Entertainment

A most successful entertainment was given in the village schoolroom at Ashley on Monday evening. The tableaux illustrating the story of the Queen of Hearts who made some tarts, and of the Knave who stole them, were excellently carried out. The costumes were most picturesque and effective, the performers being - Misses Cecilia, Florence, and Joan Malet, Alice White, Janet Holbrow, and Cecily Butt. The dialogue, "The Geese" by the Misses Alice and Blanche White, was greatly appreciated, the humorous incidents causing roars of laughter, and the personification of the countrywomen being most lifelike. The operetta, "Cinderella," was sung and acted by the Misses Beatrice, Cecilia, and Florence Malet with great charm and vicinity. Miss Cecilia Malet's violin playing delighted the audience, who throughout the evening were most enthusiastic. Mrs. White, and the Misses Alice and Blanche White acted as accompanists, and songs were capitally rendered by the Rev. C. Malet, Misses Blanche White, Alice White and Malet.

Wilts and Gloucestershire Standard, Saturday, 8 February 1896