

Crime Reports

Atworth 1850-1899

1888

Bradford on Avon. In the police court, for two similar offences [previous cases was for trespass] Edward Sims, James Aust, and Arthur Sheppard, labourers, of Atworth, were fined £2, 30s, and 20s. respectively. The Bristol Mercury, Friday, 30 November 1888.

Bradford on Avon. In the police court, Thomas Alford, of Atworth, was summoned for using a gun for the purpose of killing game, without a license, and fined 20s in one case and £2 in a second. The Bristol Mercury, Friday, 30 November 1888.

Bradford on Avon. In the police court, Edward Sims, a defendant in a previous case, was sent to prison for one month for assaulting P.C. Allsopp, of Atworth, whilst in the execution of his duty. The Bristol Mercury, Friday, 30 November 1888