

Celebrations

Baverstock

On Wednesday last Archdeacon and Mrs Hony gave an entertainment to the labourers (sixty – five in number) employed on that part of the Salisbury and Yeovil line which passes through the above parish, as a mark of their approbation of the orderly and quiet manner in which they have conducted themselves while working in that vicinity.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Saturday 28 August, 1858)