

Inquisition

Baverstock, Hurdcott

Roger Martyn

Inquisition taken at the City of Salisbury, 10th January, 4 Charles I [1629], before Robery Worsam, esquire, escheator, after the death of Roger Martyn, by the oath of Matthew Poore, Bennett Eastman, Richard Lyme, William Shepparde, Hugh Smyth, Edward Lee, John Springe, William Moulton, John Good, William Springe, Richard Springe, John Jones, John (?) Pathorne, Peter Udall, and Thomas Houlton, who say that Roger Martyn was seised in fee of the moiety of the site of the manor of Hurdcott, co. Wilts, and the moiety of all houses, buildings, etc., with appurtenances.

The premises are held of the King in chief, by knight's service but by what part of a knight's fee the jurors are ignorant, and they are worth, clear, 20s.

Roger Martyn died 13th February, 3 Charles I [1628], at Hurdcott ; Roger Martyn, is his son and next heir, and at the death of his father was of the age of 30 years and more.

“Abstracts of Wiltshire Inquisitions Post Mortem,” 1901, edited by George S. Fry & Edw. Alex Fry.