Hurdcott

Salisbury

The first exhibition for the present season, of the Salisbury and Wilts Horticultural Society, was held at our Council Chamber on Tuesday. The show was remarkably fine; but in consequence of the very ungenial state of the weather, the company of visitors was extremely scanty. The prizes were awarded as under :-

.....

Mr King, garden to G. Lawrence, esq., (Covesfield house), for third best cucumbers, and extra prize for strawberries.

A. Powell, esq., Hurdcott, for best sea-kale.

Mr Haines, kitchen gardener to Sir F. Bathurst, for second best rhubarb, second best broccoli, best cabbages.
