

Crime Reports

1900-1949

Berwick St. John

1914

Wiltshire Quarter Sessions      The Quarter Session for Wiltshire was held at Warminster, yesterday, before Lord Bath (chairman) and other magistrates.      whilst for breaking into a house at Alvediston on May 14, and stealing cigarettes, whisky, and money at Berwick St. John, another labourer, named Alfred Andow, was sentenced to imprisonment for 12 months      Western Daily Press, Wednesday, 1 July 1914

1945

Tisbury Petty Sessions      Thursday      Before Colonel F. S. Kennedy Shaw, C.B.E. (in the chair), Captain H. C. R. Brocklebank, R.N., Colonel J. Benett-Stanford, Lieutenant-Colonel R. F. Powell, D.S.O., and Mr. Tom Doggrell.      Lieutenant David M. Hill, of Lytchett Hard, Upton, Poole, was fined £2 for leaving a car on the highway without front lights, and a similar amount for not having a rear light at Berwick St. John on September 15th.      Western Gazette, 16 November 1945