

Bishopstone
1800-1849

1826

Birth At the vicarage, Bishopstone. Wilts, the lady of the Rev. Henry Middleton, a daughter. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 23 February 1826

1829

Birth At the vicarage, Bishopstone. Wilts, the lady of the Rev. Henry Middleton, a daughter. Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 8 October 1829

1841

Marriage On Tuesday the 4th inst., at Bishopstone, by the Rev. Henry Purrier, Mr. John Williams, Jnr., of Baydon, Wilts., to Jane, eldest daughter of Mr. T. Hedges, Bishopstone, Wilts. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 13 May 1841

1846

January 13. Near Highworth, Wilts, the Rev. George Thomas of Bishopstone. When out with the Vale of White Horse Hounds, apparently in good health and spirits and crossing a field at a foot-pace, he suddenly fell from off his horse and expired. He was but recently married. He was (it is believed) of Trinity College, Cambridge, B.A. 1830. Gentleman's Magazine, May 1846, Page 548-549

1847

Death On the 1st January last, at Bishopstone (North Wilts), Mr. Edward Curtis, aged 69. As a veterinarian he was extensively known, and his ability highly appreciated; his unassuming manners and excellent disposition commanded for him the respect of all, whether rich or poor. Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette, 21 January 1847