

ACCIDENTS

As a person, named Hazell, was driving on Friday night last from Bishopstone to Shrivenham, while turning a very nasty corner close to the former village the vehicle was upset, and Hazell and a young man named Holifield, a resident of the latter place, were thrown violently to the ground. Holifield fell on his head with such force as to cause concussion of the brain; his life was despaired of for some days, and he is not now out of danger. Hazell escaped uninjured.

Berkshire Chronicle, 27 January 1855