

Crime and Punishment

Bishopstrow

1800-1849

1833

Committed to the Old Bridewell, Devizes Thomas Player, charges with stealing a pair of quarter boots, the property of Harry Stepney, of Warminster, (Player was convicted at the last January Sessions of stealing fowls at Bishopstrow, and sentenced to 6 months imprisonment, Mr. Estcourt at the time admonished him as to his future conduct, observing, that if ever he should be brought before him for a similar offence, he would be transported). Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 21 November 1833