Ecclesiastical Appointments: The Rev. J. Owen appointed to the Curacy of Bowerchalke, Salisbury.

From The Hampshire Advertiser November 30, 1861

1869

The Rev. Dr Rowland Williams, author of the article Bunsen's Biblical Researchers, in Essays and Reviews, advertises in the Record for a clergymen to take charge of the district of Bowerchalke , a portion of the large parish of Broad Chalke, of which he is vicar. "Desired," says Dr Williams, "a good preacher, with musical skill and nothing odd in doctrine. Rational or Ritual eccentricity objected to."

The Pall Mall Gazette* (London) July 24, 1869

The successful applicant was the Rev Cornelius C Wambey, M. A. whose appointment as Curate of Bowerchalke was announced in October 1869 Jackson's Oxford Journal* (Oxford) October 16, 1869
