

First Annual Ball

The first annual ball organised by a few of the leading residents with held on the 28th ultimate, in the schoolroom, and was very successful. Those present included a large party from Salisbury, who were well repaid for their visit. There were 24 dances. A capital selection of music was played by a band under the conductorship of Mr. Harry Foyle. Mr. F. Cooper was M.C., Mr. Williamson, honorary secretary, and Mr. J. Combs, treasurer. The company included Mrs. and Miss Combs, Miss and Mr. Caddy, Mr. Slade and Miss Brown (Gillingham), Mr. and Mrs. Herrington, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Miss Stone, Miss Tubb, Mr. Herring, Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs, Mr. Sanger, Mr. and Misses Dennis, Mr. Stone, Mr. and Misses Humby, Mr. and Miss Martin, Mr. Elliott, Mr. Lever, Mr. Linnell, Mr. Welch, Mr. Nightingale, Mr. Rebbeck, and Mr. Roper. Mrs. Ford's house party was unable to be present owing to an unfortunate accident. The hind wheel of their carriage came off, and they all had to turn out in the pouring rain and tramp back to Martin.

The Salisbury Times, 7 February 1891