ANN Daughter of EDWARD HOSKINS Esqr. of Coventry Who died in August 1765 Aged 12 Years If Manners gentle void of guile and strife Could Health prolong and add to Human Life If Manly Sense and Innocence of Heart Could shield the stroke of Earth's unerring Dart Her Friends would not regret Lifes narrow span And She'd have liv'd beyond the Age of man But gracious Heaven who knew her virtues best Recall'd here placid Soul to Blissful rest.
Northey	William	Here lies the remains of WILLIAM NORTHEY Esq son of WILLIAM NORTHEY Esq of Compton Bassett, Wilts, by ABIGAIL daughter to Sir THOMAS WEBSTER, Bart, of Battle Abbey, Sussex who departed this life December 24th 1770 in the 49th year of his age. He was a kind relation, a true friend, a warm patriot, and a most worthy man. He gained a compleat knowledge of the interests of Britain at Court independent in the Senate unbiased. This was true of his character to add more might appear ostentatious to say the least not doing justice to his memory. Also the remains of LUCY NORTHEY his youngest daughter who died June 11th 1783 in the 15th year of her age. Reader: In pity drop one kind or tender tear For every virtue lies collected here Snatched off in all the bloom of pleasing youth A mind adorned with honour, goodness, truth To prove that souls angelic spurn this earth She raised our wonder then resigned her breath To these so mourned in death so loved in life The afflicted parent and the widowed wife With tears inscribes this monumental stone That holds their ashes and expects her own. ANNE NORTHEY wife of the above WILLIAM NORTHEY, Esq., who died December 30th 1822 aged 90 years. [located in Vestry][part source: boxpeopleandplaces]
