

New Bear Inn

BENJ. MASON begs leave most respectfully to acquaint his friends and the public in general, that he has entered on the above INN, which has undergone every requisite improvement to render it worthy of the attention of Commercial and other Gentlemen.
– N.B. Good Lock-up Coach Houses, &c.

Good Wine, with good Spirits, and likewise good Fare,
You'll constantly meet with at BRADFORD NEW BEAR,
Warm Stables for Horses, good Corn, and good Hay;
With good Beds for yourselves, if all night you will stay;
Good Porter, Good Cider, and genuine Ale,
With moderate Charges, and Beer mild or stale:
BEN. MASON thus hopes to accommodate all,
Who will deign when at BRADFORD to give him a call.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 10 July 1815

New  Bear Inn,

Bradford, Wilts,
Bath & Cheltenham Gazette June 21
1815

BENJAMIN MASON begs leave most respectfully to acquaint his Friends and the Public in general, that he has entered on the above INN, which has undergone every requisite improvement to render it worthy the attention of Commercial and other Gentlemen.

N.B. Good lock-up Coach-houses, &c.

Good wine, with good spirits, and likewise good fare,
 You'll constantly meet with at BRADFORD NEW BEAR;
 Warm stables for horses, good corn, and good hay;
 With good beds for yourselves, if all night you will stay;
 Good porter, good cider, and genuine ale,
 With moderate charges, and beer mild or stale:
 BEN MASON thus hopes to accommodate all
 Who will deign, when at BRADFORD, to give him a call.

The same advert placed in the Bath & Cheltenham Gazette on 21st June 1815