

7 Year Leases at Charlcutt

To be let on lease for seven years from Lady Day 1809. The following farms, all tythe free, in the parish of Bremhill, near the market towns of Chippenham and Calne:

A dwelling house with suitable buildings, and about 60 acres of arable and 223 of pasture land, in the occupation of Mr Robert Jenner.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings, and about 143 acres of pasture land, in the occupation of Mr Joseph Rich.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 45 acres of arable and 180 acres of pasture land, in the occupation of Mr Jacob Spackman.

Also a dwelling house, with suitable buildings and about 23 acres of arable and 104 of pasture land, in the occupation of Mr Daniel Vines.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 40 acres of arable and 156 of pasture land in the occupation of Mrs Wilkins.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 77 acres of arable and 173 of pasture land in the occupation of Mr William Pinnigar.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 2 acres of arable and 191 of pasture land in the occupation of Mr Richard Bridges.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 27 acres of arable and 107 of pasture land in the occupation of Mr Harry Ferris.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 16 acres of arable and 49 acres of pasture land in the occupation of Mrs Ann Hughes.

Also a dwelling house with suitable buildings and about 15 acres of arable and 96 of pasture land in the occupation of Mr Isaac Hammond.

All the farms described above are situate at or near Charlcutt, in the parish of Bremhill, about three miles from the town of Calne.

William Bull, the gamekeeper, near Charlcutt, with shew the farms.

Persons desirous of taking the above farms are to propose the price they will give for the same per acre, and to direct their proposals to the Marquis of Lansdowne, Southampton Castle, Hants, before 20th day of November 1808.

Plans of the estates may be seen, and further particulars known, at Mr Atherton's Office, in Calne.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 21 November 1808