

Boy Dragged by Horse 1868

On Saturday a boy named Pontin, of Bremhill, was sent out to exercise Mr Butler's horse. The little fellow it appears, while walking the horse, tied the halter to his wrist, and something suddenly frightening the horse, it bolted, throwing him and dragging him a great distance. The poor little fellow sustained some severe bruises about the head and body, and a broken arm.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 30 January 1868