

CORONERS INQUEST REPORTS

Inquest Report on Betty Whittle

At Wick Hill in the parish of Bremhill, on the body of Betty Whittle, 70 years of age. Ruth Webb deposed that on Saturday evening last, about half past 8 o'clock, she went to the shop of the deceased for some bread, when she appeared as well as usual. In a few minutes afterwards, whilst deceased was attending to witness's basket, she dropped dead on the floor. Verdict – That the deceased died from disease of the heart.

Devizes and Wiltshire Gazette Thursday 12 August 1852