

Marriage Report Peters to Conoley at Bremhill

The marriage took place at St. Martin's Church, Bremhill, yesterday, of Mr. Hugh Reynell Peters, son of Major P. Michael Peters and Mrs. Peters, of Hurlingham Court, London, S.W.6., and cousin of the Rev. A. E. G. Peters, vicar of Bremhill, and Miss Constance Lilian Conoley, daughter of the Rev. D. Conoley and Mrs. Conoley, of Forest Gate, London, E.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. E. G. Peters. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a dress of cream brocade satin, embroidered with pearls. Her veil of old Brussels lace was lent by the mother of the bridegroom. She carried a sheath of shaded yellow chrysanthemums and yellow roses. There was no bridesmaid. Mr. Paul Peters (cousin) was the best man. A celebration of the Holy Communion followed immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. E. Fry played the organ.

The bride travelled in a golden brown satin dress, with fawn tweed coat trimmed with fur collar and cuffs.
