

ACCIDENTS

Brinkworth 1800-1849

1830

On Wednesday, as Anthony Barnes, of Brinkworth, Wilts., was driving his master's team down Speen Hill, the reins broke. The poor fellow jumped out of the van, and in his endeavour to stop the horses was beaten down, and one of the wheels passed over his leg, which it crushed in a shocking manner. Hampshire Chronicle, 3 May 1830
