Brinkworth

Brinkworth, which is 4 miles long, includes the tithing of Grittenham and is in the Chippenham Division of Wilts, Union, Petty Sessional Division and County Court District of Malmesbury, and Diocese of Bristol, 5 miles from Wootton Bassett and 6 from Malmesbury. There is a station on the G.W.R. The register of the Church of St. Michael and All Angels dates from 1653. It is a handsome building in the Perpendicular style, and has been restored at a cost of £2,805, while a handsome new organ has been installed at a cost of £605. The living, a rectory of the annual value of £744, commuted tithe rent charge, besides 143 acres to glebe land and residence, is in the patronage of the Bishop of Bristol. A Church School was erected in Grittenham by the late Lady Holland in 1863. The Congregationalists have a place of Worship at Causeway End, and a Primitive Methodists have a large chapel, with assembly room, as well as other meeting places at Callow Hill and Grittenham, the circuit being an extensive one. The Earl of Suffolk and Berkshire is Lord of the Manor, and Brigadier General G. L. Palmer is the owner of the adjacent manor and land of Grittenham. Area, 6,059 acres, rateable value, £11,997; population in 1921, 932. Letters arrive through Chippenham, and are despatched at 10 a.m. and 6.35 p.m. weekdays. Letters to Grittenham arrive via Great Somerford. There is a Money Order and Telegraph and Telephone Office at Brinkworth.
