

Britford 1700-1799

1775

On Wednesday last died, after a short illness, of a fever, Mr. John Cooe, a reputable farmer, at Britford, near this city, of considerable property, which he acquired with credit, and lived respected by all that knew him. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 28 August 1775