

A voice is from the household gone,
The voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

O how we miss her, but how sadly
None but breaking hearts can tell;
We have lost her, Heaven has found her,
Jesus hath done all things well.

↔

In Loving Remembrance
of
AGNES LANDER
who died October 16th 1892,
Aged 32 Years

↔

“THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD, I SHALL NOT WANT.”

OPC note:

Census 1891: Milton End, Fairford, Cirencester, Gloucestershire

Census 1901: John Lander, husband, remarried by this time and lived at Broad Blunsdon, Blunsdon St Andrew.

Death Registered Highworth District.