

Crime and Punishment

Broad Chalke

1814

On Tuesday last was committed to Fisherton Gaol, John Loder, of Broad Chalke, charged, on the complaint of Mr. King, of Alvediston, with mixing certain ingredients amongst the food given to his horses, with intention to injure a valuable team which was entrusted to his care. Salisbury and Winchester Journal Monday 7 November 1814