MERITORIOUS SERVICE

Mr. R. J. Bailey, of Amesbury, formerly a warrant officer in the Middlesex Regiment, has been awarded the Meritorious Service Medal. Mr. Bayly, an Old Contemptible of the First World War, joined the army in 1900 and was discharged in 1921. He subsequently took up employment in the Barrack Department as a warden in 1927, and served in that capacity at Larkhill and Bulford Camps until his retirement in 1928.
