

Funeral of Mrs. Miles

The funeral of Mrs. A. Miles took place on Saturday. The Rev. P. Tomlinson officiated at a service in the London Road Methodist Church and at the interment in the Nonconformist Cemetery. The church choir was present at the service and Mrs. G. Maddocks (niece of Mrs. Miles) was at the organ. The hymn, "Jesu, Lover of my soul," and "There is a land of pure delight" were sung. The Rev. P. Tomlinson paid a tribute to the character and Christian activities of the deceased and her work for the church, of which she had been a member all her life. The immediate mourners were Mr. C. Miles (widower), Miss Chrissie Miles (daughter), Mr. V. Duckett and Mr. A. Drewett (brothers), Mesdames J. Smart and M. Smith (sisters), Mr. J. C. Smart (brother-in-law), Mrs. G. Miles, of Reading (sister-in-law), Mrs. A. Miles, of Southampton (sister-in-law), Mrs. John Drewett (sister-in-law), Mr. G. Drewett, Mr. E. Giles, Mr. Fred Webb and Mr. R. Miles (nephews), Mrs. Reynolds (niece) and Mr. and Mrs. L. Smith (nephew and niece). Amongst those also present were Mrs. P. Tomlinson, Mrs. O. Walters, Mrs. G. Barter, Mrs. W. V. Dixon, Mrs. J. Carpenter, Miss M. Sutton and Mrs. Baker (representing the Baptist Women's League), Mrs. G. H. Wiltshire (representing her husband and employees of the firm of Messrs. S. Wiltshire and Son), Mrs. Webb (representing the Calne Sisterhood), Mr. Paul Berry (representing Stanley Chapel), Mrs. Bowyer, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Longney, Miss Edwards, Mr. E. Smart, Mr. L. J. Bullock, Mr. and Mrs. A. Strange, Mr. V. J. Duckett, Mrs. Wicks, Miss D. Deacon, Mrs. Trowbridge, Mr. R. Wootton, Mr. W. J. Sainsbury, Miss G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Hill, Mr. and Mrs. E. Goodship, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Matthews, Mr. A. Boase, Mrs. Black, Miss Cleverley and Mrs. Turk. Mr. and Mrs. F. Strange (brother-in-law and sister) and Mr. Reynolds were absent through illness.

North Wilts Herald, Friday, 9 February 1940