Joseph Hill Maundrell

Memorial 1926

Memorial located in the East wall of the Nave, North side

In lasting memory of

JOSEPH HILL MAUNDRELL

who was called home suddenly

5th May 1926.

Erected by his friends in the Parish of Calstone,
As a token of their esteem and affection.

Joseph Hill Maundrell died during a thunderstorm. He was hit by a piece of wood from a conifer tree near the entrance of East Farm which was struck by lightning and disintegrated.

“There was such an explosion of the tree which killed Mr Hill Maundrell that there were pieces of wood right down by the river behind East Farm.”
