

Castle Combe

Newspaper Reports & Notices

1790

Wednesday night, Mr. Lewis, a paper maker of Long Dean, near Castle Combe, Wilts was killed near Bitton, Glos. by a fall from his horse returning from our fair. His neck was dislocated and his leg broke in two places. His horse was found grazing near him next morning.

18th September 1790, Bonner & Middletons Bristol Journal