

Cricket Match - Fairford v Castle Eaton

These teams met on Thursday June 15 to play the return game in Fairford Park. Batting first the homesters, who were weakly represented, compiled the fair total of 120 (H Busby 25, M Taylor 21, W Bowles 19). Kibblewhite bowled well for the visitors taking seven wickets. Fairford's total was passed with only two wickets down, the visitors being very strongly represented in their batting department. Rex Hewer, after being twice missed, compiled 91, his hits including two 6s and sixteen 4s; and the Rev C M R Luckman scored 43. The visitors eventually won by 48 runs with seven wickets to spare.

Cheltenham Chronicle Saturday 25 June 1910