

St. Stephen's, South Kensington

Marriage of Rev. Charles Luckman

A fashionable wedding took place, yesterday, at St Stephen's, South Kensington. The chief parties engaged in the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large gathering, were the Rev Charles Montagu Roscoe Luckman, formerly of St Paul's Church, Sculcoates, now Rector of Castle Eaton, Fairford, Gloucestershire, son of the late Rev W J G Luckman, Rector of Castle Eaton, formerly of Bath, and Miss Beatrice Mary Gleadow, third daughter of Lieutenant Colonel H Cooper Gleadow and Mrs Gleadow, 5 Cornwall Gardens, London, and formerly of Hull.

The bride was given away by her father and the ceremony was performed by the Rev Edward Luckman (uncle of the bridegroom) assisted by the Rev Francis Carbonnel (Vicar of Fairford, Gloucestershire), the Rev Stuart Lever, the Rev Edgar Pratt and the Rev G Sutton Flack (vicar of St Stephen's).

The bridesmaids were the misses C H E and F E Gleadow (sisters of the bride) and the misses Mona and Marie Luckman (the bridegroom's sisters). A little page (Master W Beardmore) and a little train bearer (Miss Joyce Gleadow) carried the bride's train. Mr H Luckman was the best man.

At the conclusion a reception was held at 5 Cornwall Gardens, SW and later the bride and bridegroom left for Folkestone, where the first part of the honeymoon will be spent.

Hull Daily Mail Friday 28 April 1899