

Extracts from Cherhill Parish Register

1850

On St. Marks Day (Thursday April 25th) was consecrated by Edward Ld Bishop of Salisbury two small pieces of ground addition to Cherhill Churchyard & given by G.H. Walker Heneage Esq., one on the south western & the other on the South eastern side thereof.

George Farley, Incumbent

1858

On 31 July 1858 was presented to the parish by Henry Phelps Esq., the Steward to the Marquis of Lansdown, Bowood, the two Tablets of the 10 Commandments zink plates & del in a gothic frame of oak.

George Farley, Incumbent

1863

These Tablets were moved to the School room and there set up on the 10th of April 1863.

W. Charles Plenderleath, Incumbent

Source: Cherhill St. James Burial Register 1813-1917