Chicklade House, Chicklade Place & The Well House

Chicklade, Wiltshire

Grade II - Listed 9th September, 1987

Country house, now three houses.

Mid C18, extended and refenestrated mid C19. Limestone ashlar with chamfered quoins to C18 build, tiled hipped roof, ashlar stacks with moulded cappings. Two-storey, eleven-window.

Chicklade Place to right has 8-panelled door with flat stone hood with two 12-pane sashes to right and Venetian window to left hand projecting bay.

Well House to centre has a door with 8 fielded panels in porch with Corinthian columns, 9-pane sash and Venetian window to right.

Chicklade House to left has double doors to projecting bay with Venetian window to right and left and two 6-pane sashes to left. First floor has plat bands, four Venetian windows, 10-pane semi-circular headed stair window to centre, 12-pane sashes in moulded architraves, two projecting bays have pedimented gables. Two bays to left are plain early C19. Rear has gabled wings with sashes. Left return has 2-storey bay with casements to left.

Interior not accessible at time of survey (August 1986), but said to have been altered during 1970s conversion to three separate dwellings.
