

Chicklade

Photo courtesy of David Eason

In Loving Memory
JOHN ALEXANDER HALLIDAY (ALEC)
Captain XI (P.A.O.) Hussars
Who Lies In This Churchyard
Born April 10th 1875 Died In Hospital
At Le Touquet November 13th 1914
Of Wounds Received At Messines On October 31st
He Served In The South African War On Special Service
And With His Regiment From Mons To the Marne, At The Battle Of The Aisne And The First Battle Of Ypres.

It Is No Doubtful That They Make
Who Go To Meet Adventure With A Song,
The Brotherhood Of Hearts That Never Break
The Wardens Of The Land Of Nothing Wrong,
. And When The Solemn Bell
Beats Out A Slow Lament For One That Falls,
In Fierce Reply A Pealing Trumpet Calls
The Challenge Of Their Watchword, "All Is Well".