

CHIPPENHAM BOOK CLUB

The members held their annual meeting at the White Hart Hotel, on Wednesday last. Dinner was served up at six o'clock, in Mr. Carpenter's first style of elegance, and consisted of every delicacy the season could furnish. The wines and desert were of the first order, and the entertainment altogether afforded ample gratification to the numerous and distinguished guests assembled. Joseph Neeld, esq., presided over the festive board with his wonted kindness and good feeling, and amongst the company was noticed T. Estcourt, esq., M.P., R. Blagdon Hale, esq., M.P., G. H. Walker Heneage, esq., M.P., Revs. Wylde, Coles, Burry, Law, Marsh; Capt. Rook, R.N., Dr. Alexander, Smith, esq., Broom Pinniger, esq., F. A. S. Locke, Lovell, &c. &c.

Wiltshire Independent, 28 November 1839