

St. Andrews, Chippenham

Death of Rev. Lewis Purbrick

We regret to announce the death of the Rev. Lewis Purbrick, who was the esteemed Vicar of this parish twenty-three years. The Rev. gentleman had been ailing for several months, and although the strongest hopes were occasionally entertained of his recovery, he gradually grew worse within the last few weeks, and expired at his residence on Sunday last. The deceased was never married. He has left a large circle of friends to lament their loss.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 1 September 1860