ARMY SERVICE CORPS. No 196 Company, M.T., A.S.C., which has been quartered in the old skating rink, will remove to-day to Bulford to the regret of the inhabitants, with whom they have made themselves popular during their several months stay. Mr. G.A.H. White placed the old restaurant in the Market Place at their disposal as a club, the management of which was in the hands of the local entertainment committee, and a farewell concert was held there on Tuesday evening has been abandoned. The Wiltshire and Gloucester Standard, 11 March 1916
