

Australian Newspaper Articles

Soldiers of the North

Lieut. Dowe Coming Home

Word has been received by Mrs A. E. Dowe, of Bondi, Sydney, that Lieut. Lloyd Dowe is on his way home to Australia. Lieut. Dowe enlisted at Tamworth in 1915, and rose from the ranks. He was wounded at Pozieres and was 15 months in hospital, after which he was on the staff at Codford for six months. He was promoted to the R.A.M.S. at No. 4 Military Depot, Hurdcott. Since this depot has been closed Lieut. Dowe has been A.D.C. to the General of the Compound. He left England on September 8 in the Raranga.

(Daily Observer, Tamworth, NSW, 22nd October, 1919)