

Complaints about High Prices of Necessaries

CODFORD – The labouring portion of the people at Codford at its neighbourhood complain very much, and it appears very justly, at the high prices they have to pay for many of the necessaries of life. The following are a few of them :- Best bread, 1s. 4d. per gallon; prime dried bacon, 1s. per lb.; mutton, 8d., and beef, 7 ½ d. ditto; strong beer, 6 l. per quart.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Saturday, 25th September, 1847)
