

In The News

Daring Robbery

On Friday morning, about two o'clock, the house of Mrs Twells, at Codford St. Peter, was broke open by some daring villains, one of whom went to her bedside, and demanded her money; but having the presence of mind to ring the bell, the thieves escaped, carrying off with them five table and four desert silver spoons.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 14th March, 1803)