(CWGC Reference - Grave # 81)

Harry Holder was born in the parish of Penzance, Cornwall, England in 1885. His birth was registered in the September quarter of 1885. He was a 31 year old, single, Farm Hand from West Perth, Western Australia when he enlisted on 13th September, 1916 with the 16th Battalion, 24th Reinforcements of the Australian Army (A.I.F.). His service number was 7251 & his religion was Church of England (His attestation paper shows Roman Catholic)*. His next of kin was listed as his father – Harry Holder of 67 Loftus Street, West Perth, Western Australia. According to his Attestation form, Harry Holder had tried to enlist the month before but was rejected due to defective teeth. Information from the Roll of Honour states that Harry Holder had received Territorial Training in Cheltenham, Gloucestershire for 4 years. He had arrived in Australia at the age of 27.

Pte Harry Holder embarked from Fremantle on HMAT Miltiades (A28) on 29th January, 1917 & disembarked at Devonport, England on 27th March, 1917.

Reinforcements were only given basic training in Australia. Training was completed in training units in England. These were located in the Salisbury Plain & surrounding areas in the county of Wiltshire.

Pte Harry Holder was marched in to 4th Training Battalion at Codford on 27th March, 1917.

Pte Holder was admitted sick to Group Hospital at Codford on 27th April, 1917.

Pte Harry Holder died at 6.20 p.m. on 28th April, 1917 at No. 3 New Zealand Hospital at Codford, England of Cerebro Spinal Meningitis.

A death for Henry Holder, aged 31, was registered in the June quarter, 1917 in the district of Warminster, Wiltshire.

From the burial report of Pte Harry Holder – he was buried 2nd May, 1917 at St. Mary's Cemetery, Codford, Grave No. 81. According to a letter from Pte Holder's mother, dated October, 1921 there was confusion as to Pte Holder's religion. He had completed his Attestation Form as being Roman Catholic, however Pte Holder's mother states in the letter that he was a "confirmed member of the Church of England." Apparently one of his brothers "had arrived at Codford Camp in time to cancel the arrangements made for a Roman Catholic funeral & to arrange for an Anglican funeral". The coffin was of polished elm & a Military funeral was conducted." The funeral was attended by his brother and wreaths were sent by him and members of the 24th Reinforcements 16th Battalion, who attended the funeral also."

Probate was granted in regards to the Will of late Pte Harry Holder on 10th August, 1917. He named his brother – James Bennetts Holder as Executor. The following were listed as Legatees – Grace Leggo Holder – sister, Personal specific; Mary Emma Holder – sister, Personal specific; Martha Holder – sister, Personal specific; James Bennett Holder – brother, Personal specific; Albert Holder - brother, a minor, residuary.

Private H. Holder is commemorated in the Hall of Memory Commemorative Area at the Australian War Memorial, Canberra, Australia on Panel 79.

Harry Holder's mother resided at West Leederville. The West Leederville War Memorial is located at 84 Cambridge St, West Leederville, Western Australia. Harry Holder was not included on the original War Memorial which was unveiled in 1924 however, the West Leederville War Memorial will be receiving a facelift in 2015, as part of a grant from the Australian Government that was approved in 2014. H. Holder & his brother J. L. Holder are two of 50 names that are to be added to the Cenotaph in 2015. The addition of the extra 50 names will be added to a new back panel below the original 16 names & will be added in alphabetical order.

An article in the local newspaper the Cambridge Post, February 21, 2015 –

Names added 100 on

Far from fading away, 49 West Leederville servicemen are finally being recognised on the West Leederville War Memorial almost 100 years after they were killed. Cambridge local studies librarian Rosemary Ritorto said: "I suspect the names were just missed."

Changes in technology meant all sorts of records could now be searched, she said.

The Memorial, which stands in Cambridge Street outside the old Town Hall building, was unveiled in 1924.

A panel has been removed from the memorial by Perth Monumental Works to add the names to the 130 already there.

Ms Ritorto said the names would fit because they would be added with less space between them.

Pte Harry Holder was entitled to British War Medal only as he had not entered a Theatre of War. A Memorial Scroll & Memorial Plaque were also sent to Pte Holder's father – Harry Holder (June, 1922 & August, 1922)

A War Pension was granted to Harry Holder, father of late Pte Harry Holder in the sum of 12/6 fortnightly granted from 3/7/1917, in addition to Pension of 12/6 per fortnight already granted in respect of late Pte John Leggo Holder. The same War Pension was applied to late Pte Harry Holder's mother – Grace Leggo Holder.

Commonwealth War Graves Commission Headstones

The Defence Department, in 1920/21, contacted the next of kin of the deceased World War 1 soldiers to see if they wanted to include a personal inscription on the permanent headstone at Codford War Graves Cemetery. Space was reserved for 66 letters only (with the space between any two words to be counted as an additional letter) & the rate per letter was around 3 ½ d (subject to fluctuation).

The expense in connection for the erection of permanent headstones over the graves of fallen soldiers was borne by the Australian Government.

(Information obtained from letters sent to next of kin in 1921)

Pte H. Holder does have a personal inscription on his headstone.

 In a letter dated 3rd October, 1921 from Pte Holder's mother, in which she explains the error in Pte Holder being listed as Roman Catholic when he was in fact Church of England, she also puts forward the reasoning for the request for the "Star of David" for Pte Holder's CWGC Headstone that is soon to be erected. "...this was chosen not because of its being a Denominational Emblem. But because of the significance of the six pointed star – inverted triangles – a symbol of considerable, meaning to an Astrologer and Occultist as was the late H. Holder.

Our Christian Cross is certainly the Emblem of sacrifice _____ it Occult interpretation, never the less knowing my son's ideas I think he himself would prefer the "Star" – The Trinity & Evolution.

This is, I suppose, a unique case. I thank you for your kind thoughts in drawing my attention to the seeming, oversight". Grace L Holder

Outcome – Pte Holder has the Christian Cross on his CWGC Headstone.
