

Listed Buildings/ Monuments

In

Codford

French Horn – Nos. 1 and 2

High Street, Codford, Wiltshire

Grade II - Listed 11th September, 1968

Two cottages. Circa 1700, extended C18.

Chequered flint and limestone, partly rendered, thatched roof with coped verge and brick stack to left, half-hip to right. L-plan. Two-storey, 3-window entrance front to No 2. Central C20 gabled porch with planked door, 3-light leaded casement either side. First floor has 3-light casement to left and two 2-light casements to right; all leaded. Left return has C20 door to No 1 and leaded casements. Right return with lean-to extension.

Interior of No 2 has deep chamfered beam with stepped stops, possibly reset, open fireplace with cambered chamfered lintel on chamfered stone jambs, with bread oven.

Known as the French Horn Inn during C19.

(British Listed Buildings)

French Horn Cottages (Photos courtesy of Romy Wyeth 2014)

(Photo from Images of England -© Mr Antony Barrington-Brown FRPS)