

Listed Buildings/ Monuments

In

Codford

The Wool Store

Located – High Street, Codford, Wiltshire

Grade II - Listed 11th September, 1968

Woollen mill, now disused and partly theatre. Early C19. Flemish bond brick with chamfered stone quoins, Welsh slate hipped 2-span roof on deep eaves, brick stack with dentilled capping to right. Three-storey, 7-window symmetrical front. Ground floor has central group of three round-headed windows, centre one blind and side ones louvred with fanlights, blind doorways with cambered heads and round-arched windows with louvres to sides; all with keystones. First and second floors have seven 3-light casements with cambered heads with keystones. Right return of second floor has blind windows or 3-light casements with cambered heads. C20 stair turret attached to left return, planked loading bays to left. Two-storey range attached to right has three blocked windows and two blocked doorways, one planked door to left and blind window and doorway to left of centre, first floor has four small pivot-hung blocked windows. Large cart entry with chamfered quoins, now entrance to theatre to right hand of range. Rear has three 2-light pointed windows with Y tracery to each of three floors; all blind except centre window on middle floor; a decorative facade facing The Wool House (q.v.).

(British Listed Buildings)

Woolstore Theatre, Codford St Peter

(Photo by Miss Steel 2008)

The Woolstore was used from 1758 to collect all the fleeces from the local farms, grade and store them until they were ready to be taken to the mill for washing and eventual weaving. The building has since been used as the village hall, Sergeant's mess, dance hall, private theatre and is now a community theatre.