

Union Friendly Society – Annual Meeting

On Trinity Monday the Union Friendly Society held their annual meeting at the George and Dragon Inn, Codford. The members attended the divine service and heard a most impressive and appropriate discourse from Proverbs 20th Chap. 1st verse, by the Rev. G. M. Webster; after which they partook of an excellent dinner, served up by Mrs Francis. After dinner the members paraded the street, with their banners and excellent band of music. The orderly and respectable appearance of the members afford a proof of the usefulness of such institutions. They all departed to their respective homes, with cheerfulness, at an early hour.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 9th June, 1823)

---