

Typical scene of WWII

William John Bennett

William John Bennett, The Market, Bath, was fined £7 7s with £3 3s costs at Bath Police Court yesterday on a summons for supplying more meat than the prescribed amount under the Rationing Order.

Seven of his customers were summoned for obtaining more meat than prescribed. They were Mrs Marjorie Beaton, Bennett Street; Mrs Kathleen Mary Cooper, Warminster Road; Mrs Annie G Kent, Ogbourne Terrace, Colerne; Mrs Elizabeth Reeves, Perrymead Place; Mrs Patricia G Pickering, Charlotte Street; Mrs Gladys G Timmins, Weston Road; and Mrs D Weld-Smith, Seend Manor, Melksham. Mrs Pickering was fined 20s with costs, and the other defendants 10s each to include costs.

Western Daily Press Wednesday 17 December 1941