

SOUTH WILTSHIRE
CORONER'S INQUESTS
Compton Chamberlayne

Newspaper Reports

Elizabeth Case 24th July, 1868

An inquest was held yesterday, by Mr R. M. Wilson, on the body of Elizabeth Case, who was found drowned in a well. It appeared from the evidence from her husband that she had been in very low spirits for some time.

The jury returned a verdict of "Temporary insanity".

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – 25 July, 1868)