

In The News

Compton Chamberlayne

A village concert interspersed with a few readings was given on Monday last at the schoolroom in aid of the funds of the Salisbury Infirmary. The full room and frequent applause especially of the songs by Mr W. Foster showed that both the object itself and the kind efforts of the performers were fully appreciated. The proceeds amounted to nearly two pounds.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal - 23 February, 1867)

---

SALISBURY INFIRMARY – The treasurer reports have received the following:- New subscription, Dr Wills, 2*l*. 2*s*. Congregational collections:- South Newton, 1*l*. 5*s*.; Wesleyan chapel, West Dean, 1*l*. 2*s*. 6*d*.; Compton Chamberlayne, 2*l*. 2*s*.; South Newton sick offertory, 5*s*. Donation:- Grand Jury Quarter Sessions, 1*l*. 14*s*.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal - 13 April, 1867)

---