

Reward

Compton Chamberlayne

FELONY

TEN POUNDS REWARD is offered to any Person giving such information as shall lead to the apprehension and subsequent conviction of the Persons, who, in the night of the 2d, or early in the morning of the 3d of June, 1829, feloniously broke and entered the Barn of Mr James King, of Compton Chamberlaine, Wilts, and took and carried away six Sacks of WINNOWED WHEAT, with the Sacks containing the same, and also two other empty Sacks, all marked with the owner's name.

The above REWARD will be paid to any of the parties concerned, who shall impeach his Accomplices, and every means used to procure his pardon.

Apply to Mr John Swayne, attorney, Wilts.

(Salisbury and Winchester Journal – Monday 8 June, 1829)