

Post Office Directory Extract 1855

East Coulston

EAST COULSTON is a township and small parish, situate 5¼ miles north-east of Westbury, 21 north-east of Salisbury, and 7½ south-west of Devizes, in the Hundred of Whorwelsdown, and in Salisbury bishopric. The living is a rectory, and the Rev. John Charles Clapp, M.A., is the rector. The church is very small, and has a low spire rising from the north end, which contains 1 bell. The population, in 1851, was 101, and the area of acres 868, which are principally arable.

Letters through Westbury, which is also the nearest money order office.

Residents

Surname	Given Names	Title	Industry/Occupation	Place/Parish
Clapp	John Charles	Rev.		Rectory
Beaven	William		Farmer	Stockmarsh
Redman	William		Farmer	